GENERAL REGULATIONS

ALL ORDERS for the Government of the School will emanate from the Principal, whose decision shall be delivered through the President to the Board of Directors.

STUDENTS are required to be present at all lectures and recitals. These are an essential part of the work, and absence from them will lower the student's record. Attendance at Lectures

BEFORE REGISTERING for a full course leading to a Diploma in Courses I, II, or III, students are required to have passed the Matriculation Examination or the Entrance to Normal, or to have an equivalent standing. For Courses Leading to Diplomas

COURSES IV and V, or any of the Special Courses, require no Academic standing. For Courses Leading to Certificates.

FEES must be paid in advance. No reduction will be made for absence, unless an entire term be lost through illness. All School bills must be settled before Diplomas are signed. The Payment of Fees

PHYSICAL EXAMINATION. Each student on entering the School is required to pass a physical examination. Physical Examination
